

GREAT MINDS START HERE.

EMPOWERING EARLY EDUCATION

MEET THE TEAM

OLIVIA ADAM
Marketing

ISOBEL BARTELS
Business Analytics

DANNON LOTZ
Marketing
Spanish

JOSE SEGUNDO
Computer Science
Physics

GARRETT RUPERT
Finance

95%

of children's brain development occurs
by the age of 6

(Grigorenko, Brain development:
The effect of interventions on children and adolescents, 2017)

What would be the best practices for a non-profit Tackling such a challenge?

Mission

Unlocking untapped potential

Kroger As A
Key Growth
Catalyst

Adjusting
Teacher
Compensation

Leveraging OSU
Student
Network

Emphasizing Growth

Optimized
Advertising
Approach

Exclusive Community for Valued Donors

Unlocking Untapped Potential

Kroger As A Key Growth Catalyst

Adjusting Teacher Compensation

Leveraging OSU
Student Network

GROWING WITH KROGER

Zero Hunger | Zero Waste Action Plan

Build Stronger Communities

Collaborate

Inspire Change

End Waste

What This May Look Like

- $105,803 In Food
- $170,756 In Consumable Supplies

Columbus Early Learning 990 (2023)

“Since 2018, the Zero Hunger / Zero Waste Foundation has directed more than $59 million to organizations that are aligned with our mission to create communities free of hunger and waste.”
(Kroger, 2023)

$276,559

In Reducible Costs

TEACHER COMPENSATION

